Right to work in the United Kingdom

Do you have the right to work in the UK? _____

In order to comply with the Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006 we will ask you to provide documentary evidence of your right to work in the UK during the recruitment process.

Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and Exception Order 1975

Because of the nature of the work for which you are applying, you must provide information about any criminal record. This includes convictions, cautions, reprimands and warnings. Our power to require this lies in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 which removes the normal operation of the Act in relation to specific occupations, including the provision of home care services. In the event of being employed in connection with this application, any failure to disclose such convictions could result in dismissal or disciplinary action. The amendments to the Exceptions Order 1975 (2013) provide that certain spent convictions and cautions are 'protected' and are not subject to disclosure to employers, and cannot be taken into account. Guidance on criteria on the filtering of these cautions and convictions can be found on the Disclosure and Barring Service website.

Do you have any convictions, cautions, reprimands or final warnings that are not 'protected' as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (as amended in 2013)? Write YES or NO _____

If you do have any previous or outstanding convictions, cautions, reprimands or warnings, you will only be asked to supply details of the type of offence, date, sentence, fine etc if you are invited for interview. Please see guidelines on completing the application form for further details.

Declaration

I declare that all the information I have given on this application form is true and accurate, to the best of my knowledge. Please note that if you give untrue or inaccurate information any employment contract may be invalidated and the employee subject to disciplinary action or dismissal.
