

PRESS RELEASE

Embargoed until Tuesday 18th June 2019

Headline: Carers Trust East Midlands chosen to comment on the Special Report into the Adult Social Care Green Paper released Wednesday 12th June 2019

Carers Trust East Midlands have been asked to comment, along with Eleanor Smith MP, on the Parliamentary Review special report into the Adult Social Care Green Paper which was released on Wednesday the 12th of June 2019. This has followed on from their involvement with the most recent Parliamentary Review.

Carers Trust East Midlands provides care to people who need support. CTEM intends to be at the forefront of change within a specialist and splintered charity sector, which CEO Christine Alexander talks about in the special report and this year's Review.

CEO Christine Alexander commented "We are delighted to be involved in this special report and this year's Parliamentary Review, and we hope our story is read widely".

The special report can be viewed here:

Each year, The Parliamentary Review aims to showcase the best of business, journalism and politics, making the March release an eagerly anticipated exercise when it comes to demonstrating platforms of success and innovation across British industry. The Parliamentary Review has been an opportunity for the best and brightest business leaders, educators and healthcare professionals to speak directly to their peers and the political classes.

Daniel Yossman, the executive director of The Review, has already commented that the Review should certainly be one of the most interesting and insightful ever. "It is always a privilege to work with such extraordinary organisations and for them to be able to share their individual success stories will always ensure that The Parliamentary Review remains essential reading."
